

THE Hedonist

2023 FIANO

Fiano sourced from Whites Valley in the Willunga foothills. Organic/Biodynamic in-conversion and certified SWA (Sustainable Winegrowing Australia).

VINTAGE NOTES

Our third La Niña event in a row brought with it our wettest November in 30 years, as well as our latest vintage start to date. This meant higher than average disease pressure which was somewhat mitigated by significant winds from spring through to autumn, as well as utilising an on-board berry sorting harvester. Yields were down across the district, but quality prevailed.

WINEMAKING NOTES

A single handpicked parcel was gently pressed, keeping the pressings separate for a long slow fermentation. Then a small portion was blended back in to add structure and mouthfeel. Fermented dry, racked and earth filtered prior to bottling.

TASTING NOTES

Colour Pale straw

Bouquet Honeydew melon, white blossom, a touch of flint and lemon verbena

Palate Bright bierre bosc pear, honeydew melon, stone fruits and creamy macadamia flavours frame a glossy mouthfeel. Finishing long, taut and savoury.
